FINANCES and MARKETS

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—(Wall Street)—Today's market was in the main a repetition of recent dull and irregular sessions, operations being in very moderate volume, consisting largely of a closing of outstanding contracts. Public interest was altogether lacking, aside from a fair inquiry for certain investment issues, including the Anglo-French bonds.

United States steel was the most active feature, though showing some heaviness. Other prominent issues included American Smelting Republic Iron and Steel, Studebaker and Packard Locomotive. Ralls were fairly firm but dull. Total sales amounted to 192,000 shares.

Bankers with foreign connections were quoted as expecting further European liquidation of American stocks and bonds as a result of the British government's plan to control those securities. The market for exchange again was irregular. Gold coins receding slightly, likewise marks, while sterling and franc was firm.

The features of the bank statement included an expansion of loans by about $25,000,000 and a contract of reserves of slightly more than $20,000,000.

Bonds were steady with a total sale value of $1,825,000.

U. S. registered $8 advanced 1/2 percent on call during the week.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—Wheat developed strength today, largely as a result of assertions that Great Britain and France were taking radical measures to provide more ocean freight room for grain, closing prices, although nervous, were 1 1/4 to 1 1/2-1 3/4-5-8 net higher, with December at $1.17 3/4 and May at $1.19 1/4. The finish in corn was irregular 3/4 off to 3-8 up and for oats was at 1-8 1/2 to 1/2 decline. Provisions closed unchanged to an advance of 15.

Possibilities of a big increase of the United States visible supply total on Monday led at one time to a moderate setback for wheat prices, but the effect was not of lasting sort.

Clear cold weather had a bearish influence on corn.

Oats suffered in value, owing to reports that in the east the oldest grades of Canadian oats were cheaper than the domestic.

Provisions hardened in price, owing to recent big shipments of meats and lard. Only passing notice seemed to be given to announcement that hog arrivals here for the week were the largest on record.

WILSON THIRD TOWED IN THE WHITE HOUSE

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—Woodrow Wilson is the third president to be married during his term of office. President Tyler was the first and President Cleveland was the other. Mr. Wilson, like Mr. Wilson, was left a widower during his term. Two years later, in 1844, in New York City, he was married to Miss Julia Gardiner, who then resided at the White House, functions during the last year of her husband's term of office.

Grover Cleveland's marriage to Miss Frances Folsom took place in the blue room of the executive mansion. It was comparatively a private affair. For the invited guests included only the cabinet members, their wives and a few friends and relatives of the couple.

President Wilson's wedding is the third in his family since the blue room of the executive mansion. It was comparatively a private affair. For the invited guests included only the cabinet members, their wives and a few friends and relatives of the couple.

Cattle receipts $5.00; weak. Native beef steers $5.50; 11.00; western steers $6.25; 6.50; cows and heifers $2.00; 6.35; calves $6.75; 10.00. Sheep receipts 3,000; weak. Wethers $6.10; 6.50; ewes $4.25; 6.40; lambs $8.00; 8.50.

WEEKLY MARKET SUMMARY

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Expiration of the $500,000,000 Anglo-French war loan syndicate, creating a free market for that security, the plan of the British chancellor to centralize American securities, the strain in relations between this country and Austria, and a decline in exchange on Germany to lowest rates ever recorded indicate to what extent the foreign situation figured in this week's market.

There were numerous domestic developments of a favorable character. Including the statement that steel mills already have ordered for the third quarter of the coming year, but these were more than neutralized by the steady liquidation of stocks and bonds, a considerable part of which emanated from abroad.

General business conditions lost none of their recent growth and a broad holiday demand gave decided impetus to retail trade. The government crop reports confirmed recent statements of bumper yields for almost all classes of grains and in indicative of handsome returns.

The course of quoted prices reflected a more even balance between buyers and sellers. Oil shares were a feature, reflecting the increasing demand for the raw and refined product at steadily advancing prices.

November railroad earnings will be forthcoming next week. Statements of gross receipts already at hand, point to gains over the phenomenal returns of October.

Bankers report a steady absorption of high grade issues by conservative investors.

of his term was that of his second daughter, Jessie Woodrow Wilson, to Francis Bowes Sayre, and the other was that of his youngest daughter, Eleanor, to Secretary McAdoo. The president now has two grandchildren, the little son of the Sayres and the baby daughter of the McAdoos.

The president and his bride both are Virginians by birth. He was born at Staunton 59 years ago this month, and she was born at Wytheville, the daughter of Judge and Mrs. William H. Bolling, and was one of a large family.

Two sisters, Mrs. Alexander H. Galt, and Miss Bertha Bolling, and three brothers, John Randolph, Richard Wilmar and Julian E. Bolling, live in Washington. Rolfe E. Bolling, another brother, is manager of the Commercial Bank at Panama, and another, Dr. William E. Bolling, lives in Louisville, Ky. A third sister, Mrs. M. H. Maury, lives in Anniston, Ala. The bride's family has been prominent in the history of Virginia and she herself is a descendant of Pocahontas, the Indian chief's daughter who married John Rolfe.

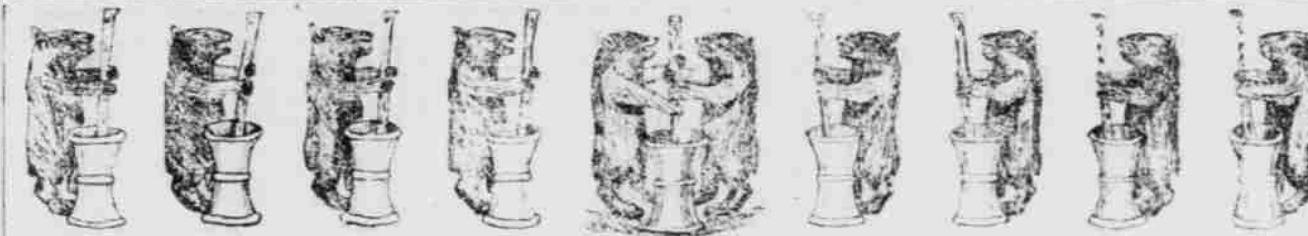

Since 1895 Mrs. Galt has lived in Washington, belonging to none of the distinct social sets, but active in charity and philanthropy in her own ways. From her first husband she inherited control of a prosperous mercantile business, of which her husband had been the head and many tributes are paid to her ability. But activity in business, her friends say, never has diminished her interest in a woman's world. She loves flowers, books and outdoor recreations. After the president's courtship began she took up golf and on many Saturdays afterwards they were seen together on the links at some one of the country clubs about the capital or at other times taking long motor drives over the Virginia hills or along the shore roads in lower Maryland. Often they took picnic luncheon from the White House and ate it by the roadside.

In the White House circle the bride quickly found her place. She plays the piano, sings and loves poetry and when in the intimacy of the family the president often has read aloud his favorite poems, as is his custom, she has been heard one of his most interested listeners.

Miss Margaret Wilson, the president's oldest daughter, and Miss Helen Woodrow Bowes, his cousin, are said to have drawn her into the White House circle in the early autumn of 1914. From that time she was a frequent guest at the executive mansion and last summer spent a month as a guest of Margaret Wilson at the White House at Cornish, N. H. The engagement was announced October 6, not long after the presidential party returned to Washington for the winter.

Both the president and his bride agreed not to have their wedding in the White House, but in her home near Dupont circle, which sometimes is called the social hub of the capital. She chose there in a tasteful arrangement house somewhat small in comparison with the mansion which surrounds it. It is not large enough for entertaining on an extensive scale and for that reason a large company was not invited to the wedding. Mr. McAdoo, the president's son-in-law, was the only member of the cabinet included in the party. The rest were all relatives.

The repeatedly expressed wish of the couple for a quiet wedding, unattracted by any great amount of
